AMERICAN TROOPS MARCHING TO KOREA

Southern Defences To Be Bolstered Up

BASES IN THE NORTH TOO WILL BE BOMBED: TRUMAN'S ORDER

Total Blockade Of Korean Coast-Line

London, June 30 (PTI-Reuters)

AMERICAN land forces are already on their way to Korea, it was disclosed tonight a few minutes after President Truman announced he had authorised General Douglas MacArthur to use "certain" land forces.

The President also authorised American aircraft to attack bases in North Korea and announced a blockade of the whole Korean coast.

The movement and strength of the American troops are hidden behind a wartime security curtain, but they are believed to be anti-tank gunners and engineers intended to bolster South Korean defence at its weakest point in meeting armoured attacks.

Tokyo looks more and more like a war base with convoys of trucks rumbling through the streets escorted by police jeeps with wailing sirens.

The American forces are thought to be on their way to Suwon, General MacArthur's advance headquarters, 23 miles south of the northern breakthrough today on the River Han.

General MacArthur, Commander of United Nations Forces supporting South Korean defenders, has available in Tokyo 123,000 troops—his own and those of the United Nations.

The President said General MacArthur was authorised to use "certain supporting ground units".

The President said that the decisions were "in keeping with the United Nations Security Council's request for support to the Republic of Korea in repelling the North Korean invader and in restoring peace in North Korea."

The President's announcement said: "In keeping with the United Nations Security Council's request for support to the Republic of Korea in repelling the North Korean invader and restoring peace in Korea, the President announced that he had authorised the United States Air Force to conduct missions on specific targets in Northern Korea, wherever military necessity, and had ordered a naval blockade of the entire Korean coast."

"General MacArthur has been authorised to use certain supporting ground units."

NO ELABORATION

No immediate elaboration was given as to what these "certain supporting ground units" might be.

Despatches from Korea had made it plain that the South Koreans are in particular need of artillery and anti-tank weapons.

General MacArthur's Far Eastern Army of 123,000 includes four divisions. They are the First Cavalry Division, an Infantry Division despite its name—the Seventh Infantry Division, the 24th Infantry Division and the 25th Infantry Division.

READY & TRAINED

General A. Lawton Collins, the Army's Chief of Staff, said after a recent visit to the area that Far Eastern American troops were in a high state of readiness and training.

Ground troops are stationed in Japan, Okinawa and other islands of the Ryuku Chain and the Philippines.

Following the White House announcement, an army spokesman said that all troops in the Far East command had been alerted.

The Army also had an additional 8,000 men in Hawaii.

It was not yet known what units or what types of troops would move to Korea.

SECRET REPORT

The President's three decisions to step up United States military support for hard-pressed Korean forces followed receipt by the President of a secret report from General MacArthur summing up his conclusions after a personal inspection of the South Korean front yesterday.

The following comments were made by participants in the meeting which was held by the President immediately before announcing the decisions:

The House leader Mr. John McCormack (Democrat, Massachusetts): "The President is courageously meeting the situation and the United States people have confidence in the President and his leadership."

Secretary of Defence Louis Johnson: "I am supporting the President 100 per cent in this. We have to take firm action."

Dangers Of Smoking

WASHINGTON, June 30 (UPI)—Smoking is a cause of cancer of the lung, according to a review of an American experiment in this week's "British Medical Journal". While tobacco has long been a suspected cause of cancer, the American test is the first statistically impeccable study to be produced, states a medical authority.

Summed up for the layman it means this: if you smoke, your risk of getting cancer of the lung is enormously increased.

"CLEAR CASE OF AGGRESSION"

Pakistan Endorses U.N. Resolution

LAKE SUCCESS, June 30 (PTI-Reuters): Twelve members of the United Nations, in addition to most major powers on the Security Council, except Russia, have pledged their support for the Security Council's action in Korea and more letters or cablegrams are arriving hourly.

The Pakistan Representative to the United Nations, declared today that his Government considered the hostilities in Korea as a "clear case of aggression on the part of North Korea."

The statement said the Government "has noted with satisfaction the resolution of the Security Council" and added the United Government "does not regard the Far East as falling within its sphere of military responsibility for peace but would give careful and sympathetic consideration to any appeal for assistance in dire need received either from the United Nations or Western Powers associated with the Security Council resolution."

BRITAIN MAKES DIRECT APPEAL TO RUSSIA

Co-operate In Settling The Conflict In Korea

LONDON, June 30. (PTI-Reuters).

BRITAIN has appealed to the Soviet Government to co-operate in securing a settlement of the Korea conflict.

The appeal was made to the Soviet Government by the British Ambassador in Moscow, Sir David Kelly, who called at the Russian Foreign Office yesterday, the Foreign Office announced today.

Sir David Kelly saw M. Pavlov, head of the second European Division in the absence of the Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, M. Andrei Gromyko, who was busy at the time.

A Foreign Office spokesman said today that Sir David Kelly made an oral statement to M. Pavlov and did not hand him a note. M. Pavlov undertook to convey the message to M. Gromyko.

The direct British appeal to Moscow is in line with the similar appeal made by note by the United States Government a few days ago.

Last night in a formal reply to the United States, the Soviet Government reiterated its view that the fighting in Korea arose from an invasion from the South against the north.

AUTHORITY TO EXECUTE

Planning Body's Purpose

NEW DELHI, June 30. (PTI): The composition of the Government Planning Commission has ensured "the prestige and authority needed for the execution of the major provisions of the Commission's proposals."

This view is expressed by Mr. Shankar Das, General Secretary of the Planning Commission, in the current issue of the AICC fortnightly economic review in its leading article captioned "Planning Commission and its work."

Replying to the recent controversy over the composition and function of the Planning Commission, Mr. Das emphasises that the "task of formulating a plan to steer clear of the problems in the various sectors of our economy is as urgent as important."

"The Planning Commission", Mr. Das adds, "instead of devoting too much attention to the solution of the current problems, will do well to concentrate on the supreme task of formulating a plan—not only an economic plan but a plan for gearing up the administration to the fulfilment of the various phases of the plan."

Mr. Das also pointed out that the Planning Commission will be a permanent body and will not be a temporary one.

Reds Smash Across Han River

U. S. BOMBERS ATTACK ADVANCING TANKS

TOKYO June 30.

NORTH KOREAN armour and infantry smashed across the Han River early today to break through the main South Korean defence line.

Battered southern divisions—ordered to hold the line "at any cost" by General Douglas MacArthur—could not stand against the armour thrown at them just south of Seoul.

Tokyo headquarters said the invader had got 40 or 50 armoured vehicles over the quarter-mile wide river.

South Korean Commander Major General Chey Byung Duk resigned after the break-through and was stopped from committing suicide by his officers, according to reports from Suwon.

American B-29s smashed three main bridges across the Han yesterday in a bid to prevent Communist tanks swarming across. American super-forts and fighters roared over Korea under orders to seek out and destroy the northern air forces of Russian built yaks and its "nests" wherever they are found.

General MacArthur took the decision yesterday after watching the yaks harry desperately fighting south-erners and attack the American air-strip at Suwon.

REGRUPEING

But South Korean forces are regrouping today to retake the Han river bridges.

Terrain south of the Han is not favourable for tanks.

Armour could use the narrow road from Seoul to Suwon but the land on either side is mainly paddycultures.

U.S. BOMB ATTACK

American B-29s bombed targets along Han river east and west of Seoul hitting barges and troop concentrations as well as Russian and road intersections. MacArthur's communique reported.

Incomplete reports showed that about 30 trucks were destroyed along with two locomotives and undetermined number of goods wagons. About ten to fifteen tanks were also destroyed by strafing planes. Bombers were covered by elements of fifth air force.

An earlier report from the Joint emergency Government headquarters in South-Eastern Korea, said that Brigadier General Chung Ill Kwa, at present returning from Washington would succeed General Chey.

STATE DEPARTMENT'S COMMUNIQUE

WASHINGTON: The United States Defense Department announced today that North Korean forces had broken through southwest of Seoul.

North Korean troops crossed the Han river with between forty and fifty armoured vehicles, a Department spokesman said.

It was believed here that the river could have been crossed by the river crossing force, but could not confirm the Tokyo report that General MacArthur had decided to attack North Korean forces North of the 38th Parallel.

North Korean forces were reported to have occupied a small naval base at Nukohin-Ni, about nine miles north of Sanchun.

It was reported here that the North Koreans have two divisions supported by nine tanks in the Chunchon area.

Naval ships have bombarded the North Korean landings on the East Coast but no word had been received here of results.

POLITICAL REPERCUSSIONS

LONDON: Commenting on General MacArthur's directive ordering his planes to bomb targets north of 38th Parallel, Walter Simmons, Chicago Tribune correspondent, in a despatch to Reuters said this action taken on the General's initiative yesterday, is expected to be approved in Washington.

Although strictly military action this would have tremendous political repercussions. It could mean that if South Korea won the war—a possibility which still seems doubtful—they would be masters of the entire country. If this happens the bold Russian scheme of conquest in Asia would suffer its first setback.

These are the stakes for which the allied nations are playing in helping South Korea defend itself.

Pyeongyang, capital of North Korea, and other airfields were put on the list for early bombing. Russian built planes based at these fields have proved a major nuisance in the last few days. They have destroyed at least four American planes on the ground and strafed Ambassador McClellan's plane last night.

This week additional military aid was promised by President Truman on

Move To End Korean War By Mediation

LAKE SUCCESS, June 30 (PTI-Reuters): The six "small power" members of the Security Council today held a meeting to consider a possible last-minute mediation attempt to stop the Korean war.

The six powers, India, Egypt, Yugoslavia, Ecuador, Cuba and Norway, were believed to have met in the offices of the Indian Delegation.

The talks were understood to have been under the leadership of Mr. Benegal Narsing Rau, Chief Indian Delegate, and this month's President of the Security Council.

RAY'S PEACE MOVES

Meanwhile, Mr. Bengel Narsing Rau is understood to have been following up his idea of a meeting "at the highest level" of either United States and Soviet Russia or of the big four to discuss the various issues which have divided the United Nations and the world.

Mr. B. N. Rau's efforts are continuing, but he will only make a definite proposal if there is sufficient support from the Security Council members in thinking on the above lines. The Indian Delegate does not, however, have only Korea in mind but the basic causes of world tension.

The city's weather tomorrow will be fair with a few shower in some parts.

MURDER AND SUICIDE

GAUHATI, June 30 (UPI): Report of the wholesale butchery of a family by the father himself, followed by his own suicide, has been received here from Nazira.

Thirwar Bardoloi, a well-known businessman of Hahchaha, five miles from Nazira, and owner of huge property, killed his wife, six children and himself on Tuesday night.

A letter found on the table of the deceased by the side of an axe with which the horrible act was committed, said that he himself killed the family. The letter added that his property after his death should go to the Government.

A son who was prosecuting his studies in Jorhat survived. The cause of the incident is not known. The deceased donated big sums to several public institutions besides a pucca primary school in his village.

APPEAL TO TENANTS TO ORGANISE

Conference To Be Held On July 16

BOMBAY, Friday. An appeal to the tenants in Bombay to organise themselves into tenants' associations and co-ordinate their activities through a unifying organisation like the Bombay Bhadekaru Sabha which was set up by the merger of some 15 tenants' bodies in January last was made by Shri G. G. Mehta, at a press conference today.

With this end in view, a conference of all the tenants in Bombay will be held at Bhavastky Lodge on the 16th July under the auspices of the above association.

He made a plea for amending the Rent Act making it compulsory for the landlord to carry out necessary repairs and in case of failure on the part of the landlord to carry out such repairs, the tenants must be entitled to refuse payment of rent. In any case of dispute an impartial arbitration machinery should be provided for settlement of the issue.

Characterising the Government and the municipality as the "two biggest landlords who were exempt from the salutary provisions of the Rent Act", Shri Mehta complained that the Government had issued "quit notices" to the tenants residing in the Dhara, Sion, Matunga and Sewri Camps as they had refused to pay the 300 to 400 per cent increase in rent demanded of them.

RESERVE FUND He admitted that Government had incurred expenditure by way of repairs and improvements on these hutments but it did not admit of such high and arbitrary increase. These tenements, Shri Mehta revealed owing to overcrowding housed nearly 20,000 people who would be thrown on the streets in the worst season of the year if the notices are not withdrawn.

A suggestion for building up of a reserve fund by the landlords out of the rent that they received to be fixed at 50 per cent or more of the surplus left after payment of the taxes to be utilised for repairs was also made by him. He revealed that on a rough estimate the landlords in Bombay collected Rs. ten crores and eighty lakhs after paying the municipal taxes on their properties.

VACANT PLOTS He made an appeal to the Government to call upon the owners of vacant plots to either build within a prescribed limit themselves or else lease out the land to co-operative societies of the residents in that locality for their building schemes.

If necessary, rationing of floor area on the lines obtaining in Sweden should also be introduced in the State. Making what he admitted was "rather a revolutionary suggestion in the context of the present-day society", Shri Mehta said that co-ownership in tenements should be introduced through suitable legislation because "it was one of the bare necessities of life".

Finally he sounded a warning that though they would pursue constitutional means at first, if their reasonable demands were not met they would have to resort to satyagraha to redress their grievances. He hoped that Government will not waste any more time in futile discussions and move in the matter urgently.

PROTECT ADIVASIS FROM EVICTION

Bombay Committee's Recommendations.

POONA, June 29, (PTI): Proposals for improving the socio-economic conditions of the backward classes in the former India states now merged into the Bombay State were considered at a three-day meeting of a Committee appointed by Government to inquire into their conditions.

Bombay's backward class population has increased by about 17 lakhs—ten lakhs of whom are Adivasis and seven lakhs Harijans—with the merger, and the members of the Committee undertook a tour of the areas inhabited by them as a preliminary to framing recommendations. Some of these areas are "protected" areas and have been declared "Scheduled" areas by the President of India under the new Constitution.

Generally speaking, the Committee found that the backward classes lived under conditions of poverty and ignorance. It was observed that in order to secure the ordered progress of this class of people they should be given a sense of security which was largely denied to them on account of the present tenure system under which they could be evicted by landlords on the ground that the land was required for personal cultivation.

TYPEWRITERS TO BE MADE IN BOMBAY

BOMBAY, Friday: Two typewriter manufacturing plants are to be established near Bombay in the near future, it is learnt.

One plant will be sponsored by a Bombay firm, at present producing steel furniture and office equipment. The firm has concluded an agreement with a British firm of typewriter manufacturers for technical aid and patent rights. Part of the necessary machinery has already been imported, and the plant is being erected.

The other factory will be established by an Italian typewriter manufacturer.

American typewriter manufacturers have long enjoyed a practical monopoly in the Indian market.

Alleged Theft Case

ORNAMENTS FOUND MISSING

BOMBAY, Friday: For alleged theft of ornaments valued at Rs. 1,192 from a trunk of a passenger on the Poona Railway Station platform, Messrs. Pascal Mathias and Thomas D'Souza were arrested by the Agrapada Police yesterday.

Producing the accused before Mr. H. G. Mahimtura, Presidency Magistrate, Girgaum Court, the police stated that the accused were travelling in a train along with the complainant from Mangalore to Bombay.

During the journey, the complainant had opened her trunk to put back a gold chain in a box containing other ornaments, which apparently was noticed by both the accused who also belong to Mangalore.

When the train reached Poona, the complainant went out for some refreshments, leaving the trunk in charge of a friend.

When the complainant and her friend, who had also gone out, returned the suspects were not in the compartment and the police believe that they boarded another compartment and reached Bombay.

When the complainant on reaching Bombay opened her trunk she found that the box containing the ornaments was missing.

As the trunk had only small locks and as they were still intact at the time of opening the trunk, the police suspect that duplicate keys were used. The accused are suspected by the police to be involved in this case. They were released on bail by the Magistrate today.

INNOCENT PATHAN STABBED

BOMBAY, Friday: Death stalked round the corner for young Shiraj-ul-Haq, a lame Pathan, who went for an after-dinner stroll last night.

Haq went out with a stick which he used as a sort of a crutch. As he neared the vicinity of the Vadala Municipal market, he saw two persons engaged in a heated quarrel. Haq did not bother himself about the fight and proceeded on his way.

He had hardly gone a few steps when one of the parties to the quarrel came running towards him and tried to snatch his stick with which to beat up his adversary. Haq refused to part with the stick.

Frustrated in his effort to snatch away Haq's stick, with which he wanted to belabour his enemy, the man is said to have turned his fury on Haq and whipping out his clasp knife stabbed him in the neck.

Haq collapsed and died on the spot. The police are making enquiries, but so far no one has been able to throw light on who the two men were. Neither the man who stabbed Haq nor his adversary has been traced.

Opium Seized From Passengers

BOMBAY, Friday: Opium worth Rs. 2,500 was seized from two passengers who alighted from the Kathiawar Mail at Bombay Central this morning. Both the men were taken into custody by the Railway police.

According to the police, Vasanji Kasanji and Bhanji Ramji had boarded the train at the Viramgam Railway Station. They got down at the Central and their movements roused the suspicion of a police constable who was present on the station platform. He searched their belongings and ultimately found the opium concealed in a corner of a steel trunk which one of them carried.

POLICE CONSTABLE ASSAULTED

Four Arrested

BOMBAY, Friday: A police constable on duty while proceeding along 14th Kamatipura Lane last evening came upon a rowdy gathering of about 24 Pathans. When he intervened, he was assaulted by some of them. In the melee that followed other police appeared on the scene, as a result of which four Pathans were arrested, one of whom was in possession of a clasp knife.

One of the crowd who came to the rescue of the police, it is stated, received a stab in the stomach and was removed to the hospital for treatment. The four who have been arrested are Mohamed Rafiq Rahmut Shan, Babu produced at the Mazagaon Police and Falash Shahbulla. They were produced at the Mazagaon Police Court this morning and were offered bail.

MURDER SUSPECT ARRESTED

BOMBAY, Friday: Alleged to have been involved in the murder of a police constable which took place in the city on Tuesday last, Ramchandra Keshav was arrested by the police in the early hours of this morning. He was produced today before Mr. K. J. Khambatta, Presidency Magistrate, Esplanade Court, who ordered him to be remanded into custody, pending further investigations.

The police told the Magistrate that Ramchandra was the member of a gang of marauders that was responsible for the murder of the said constable as well as of a Bhaya attached to the Dadar Railway Yard on the G. I. P. line.

Sidhwa's Impressions Of European Tour

PURE, FRESH & CHEAP MILK:
RAILWAYS RUN AT A LOSS

"ONE THING that impressed me during my European tour was the civic sense and the civic responsibility of the people. People there know how to work as well as how to enjoy life," said Mr. R. K. Sidhwa, M.P., addressing members of the Freedom Group.

During his seven weeks' tour Mr. Sidhwa visited 19 cities of 19 countries, spending 15 days in London, 7 in Paris, and between 4 to 5 days each in the rest of the places, devoting much time to the study of the different parliamentary systems and of other things which we in India could and should emulate. "I would have been able to contribute more towards constitution-making if I had gone to Europe before," he said.

In his kaleidoscopic description of the places he visited, he made some very interesting observations. For instance, he said that the life of the average man is longer in Europe than in India. The secret for this, he said, was that work started at 10 o'clock in the morning, and no one was supposed to be in office after 5 or 5-30 p.m.

In all the countries he visited, he said, Government gave priority to education and health, and added that it was just the other way about in India. In the U.K., the Government contributed as much as 347 million pounds towards education alone.

NO-ADULTERATION OF MILK
Milk, he said, was the primary food, and cost only the equivalent of 4 annas for a glass. It was pure, fresh milk. The officials there, he said, were flabbergasted when he questioned them about adulteration. They never thought that such a thing could be done. From London to Rome it was just pure, fresh milk. Adulteration, he said, was feared not because of the penalty imposed by law, but because of the damage it could cause to health. "In India," said Mr. Sidhwa, "we have a number of laws, but in spite of it, milk continues to be adulterated." He marvelled at the patriotic spirit of the Londoners which made them so conscientious in such matters.

Giving his impressions of Switzerland, he said that of the total population of 45 lakhs, two-thirds were women and one-third men. The women, he said, were almost all other countries, consisted of two chambers. If a law was bad, all that was necessary was only to obtain 50,000 signatures to have it scrapped. Talking about Bern, the Swiss capital, which has a population of 8 lakhs, he said it could surpass ten Bombay in beauty.

He paid a glowing tribute to the railway system in Switzerland which worked punctually to schedule, regardless of whether there was only one passenger to carry and how much loss it involved. And loss it always proved to be. In India, he said, such a state of affairs which showed no profit, would not be tolerated and would inevitably lead to the cancellation of our railways, he said, were an apology to the railways in Switzerland. In Europe, generally, the third class was far superior to the first class in India.

RAILWAYS RUN NOT FOR PROFIT
In some countries where the railways were owned by private concerns, they nevertheless received aid from Government, in spite of the fact that such railways were run at a loss. When he questioned the French Minister of Railways as to how Government could contribute towards the upkeep of a railway that worked at a loss, the reply he received from the Minister was "Where in the world is a railway that runs at a profit?" For the information of that Minister, said Mr. Sidhwa, he pointed out that in India we were setting aside 23 crores out of the profits for benefit funds. "Congratulations!" But, observed Mr. Sidhwa, look at the way in which we are running our railways—look at the comparatively exorbitant fares and the poor returns the passenger gets by way of comfort, and at the wages of railwaymen. Is it a wonder he asked, that we can show so much profit. In Europe, they realized that railways were a national asset and were needed at any cost.

Referring to buses, he said that in London and Paris there was a bus running not every minute but every second, and what was more they ran in London at 50 to 60 miles an hour. Accidents to pedestrians were very few because everyone had a "traffic sense." Women would even run to be out of traffic's way—not like the people here who made no effort at all to hasten to the other side. Besides, he said, they had the police to guide them—"police who are guides in the real sense of the word and not like the type we have in India."

Talking about cows, he said the people in Europe knew how to protect and maintain them. He came across a farmer and his wife in Holland who, between them, managed 42 acres of land with 21 cows. In Holland, he said, the cows were given why. He drew a marked contrast between the cattle in Europe and the cattle in India. Men who owned cattle in India left them to wander about, waiting for other people to feed them, he said.

WORD TO OUR MINISTERS
Rotterdam, he said, was the finest port, and he was surprised to hear that the ports in Holland were maintained by the municipalities, and wondered why the same could not be done in this country. He deplored the fact that though many of our Ministers had been to Europe, no concrete proposal had been put forward for the emulation of such that could be advantageously introduced in India. "Ministers," he said, "are meant for action." Even if they went abroad for the specific purpose of attending a labour conference or for concluding

Forest Lovers' Association

MUNSHI'S DECISION

NEW DELHI, June 30 (PTI): The Agriculture Minister, K. M. Munshi, said at a press conference here today that he had decided that an Indian Forest Lovers' Association, Bharatiya Van Premi Sangh, should be founded in India. A nominal fee of annas eight a year would be charged for membership, he added.

Mr. Munshi said that the country had taken up the "Vana Mahotsava" with unexpected enthusiasm and the number of trees planted might even exceed two crores. Madras led with a target of 40 lakh trees, followed by Bombay, Mysore and Madhya Pradesh with a target of 25 lakh trees. The army and railways were both planting trees on a large scale.

On account of the vagaries of the monsoon, it had been decided that though the week would be from July 1 to July 7, tree planting could be done up to the end of August and the whole period would be counted.

The provisional Forest Lovers' Association, said Mr. Munshi, would be organised by the Forestry Board.

Programme For Bombay

BOMBAY, Friday. As a part of the Vana Mahotsava programme, Shri Dinkarrao N. Desai, Minister for Civil Supplies, will plant a tree in the compound of the Bharatiya Vidya Bhawan's College, Andheri, at 10 a.m. on July.

Earlier, about 5,000 students studying in various colleges and schools in the City will go to the Kanheri National Park at 8-30 a.m. and will plant about 5,000 trees there. The planting ceremony will be followed by an entertainment programme at the park.

As already announced, the Sheriff of Bombay will plant a tree near the gate of the Town Hall at 7-30 a.m. tomorrow.

Shri K. M. Munshi, Minister for Food and Agriculture, Government of India, will perform the tree-planting ceremony at 5-30 p.m. on July 2, at the Hansraj Morarji School, Andheri.

UNITE FOR COUNTRY'S PROGRESS

Mahatab's Plea To People

CALCUTTA, June 30 (PTI): India's Minister of Industry and Supply, Mr. Hare Krishna Mahatab, yesterday called upon the people to sink their differences and work unitedly, in co-operation with the Government for the progress of the country.

Mr. Mahatab, who was speaking at a reception given him by the Congress of the Bharat Chambers of Commerce said that there were, no doubt, difficulties in this regard, but they had to overcome these.

Mr. Mahatab asked the critics of the present control system to consider the total benefit gained by the country. There might have been loss on one account and gain on the other, but the sum-total effect of control had been found to be a positive gain. This he said, justified the retention of controls at the moment, and if it proved to be otherwise it would surely be withdrawn.

BOMBAY, Friday.

During May last the working class cost of living index number for Bombay (on base year ended June 1934 equal to 100) advanced by five points to 312, owing to a rise of ten points in the food group and that for Sholapur on base year ended January 1938 equal to 100 rose by 12 points to 289, owing to a fall of 18 points in the food group and 13 points in the fuel and lighting group.

MORARJI DESAI'S APPEAL FOR CONSTRUCTIVE WORK

Need For Cooperative Effort Stressed

Shri Morarji R. Desai, Minister for Home and Revenue, advised "law-abiding and peace-loving villagers" to discard those who were preaching hatred and violence and encouraging party strife and to follow those who were asking them to unite and work together in order to strengthen the nation. The Minister was addressing a public meeting, yesterday, at Viraj, in the Sholapur District, where he laid the foundation-stone of a Sarvodaya Hostel.

The Minister said that it was very easy to destroy things but very difficult to create them and added, "We have undertaken many development activities, for which our natural resources must develop. Unless we produce more, we cannot have enough to eat and wear. Sarvodaya is an activity aimed at national reconstruction and all-round development of the people."

FRUIT OF FREEDOM
Remarking that the reconstruction of a nation was a task as difficult as it not more, the winning of freedom, the Minister said that if all the people became conscious of their duties and responsibilities and worked with zeal, the task of gathering the fruit of freedom would become easy. He congratulated the local villagers on their starting a Sarvodaya school and a co-operative society and other

POSSIBILITIES OF TRADE WITH PAKISTAN

Finance Minister's Talks With Merchants' Chamber

BOMBAY, Friday. The possibilities of resuming normal trade between India and Pakistan and the question of the investment of foreign capital in India were among the important issues discussed by India's Finance Minister Shri Chintaman Deshmukh when he met the Committee of the Bombay Chamber of Commerce this afternoon.

Regarding investment of foreign capital, the discussion centred mainly round the recent press note issued by the Government which extended to some degree the present facilities for repatriation of capital invested in India.

The Committee informed the Finance Minister of their anxiety with regard to the question of a Double Income-Tax Avoidance Agreement with the United Kingdom and expressed the hope that the negotiations at present going on with the U.K. Government would be fruitful.

Sir Chintaman stated that negotiations in this regard were still in progress and as such he expressed his inability to throw any further light on the question nor on the outcome of the negotiations.

OIL PRICES
There was also a general discussion on various matters which, it was felt, had a bearing on the continued inflationary tendencies in the country, and particular reference was made to the very high internal prices of oils and oleseeds. The Committee expressed the opinion that the import duty on coconut oil was one factor which had contributed largely to the present high prices not only of coconut oil, but of other oils, and it was suggested that the abolition of this duty, although it would result in some loss of revenue, would be advantageous as such a step was bound to bring down the high prices of oils in the country.

The Committee brought to the notice of the Minister the difficulty experienced by trade on account of the continued levy of inter-State sales tax. They requested the Minister to issue a directive from the Centre to clear up the position. In this connection, they pointed out that the levy of such a tax after the Constitution had come into force was, according to legal opinion, in contravention to its provisions.

LINKING SHROFFS WITH R. BANK

Finance Minister To Consider

BOMBAY, Friday: Shri Chintaman Deshmukh, Finance Minister, Government of India, is reported to have told the Bombay Shroff (bankers) Association here today that Government would consider the question of linking the shroffs with the Reserve Bank of India after a factual and quantitative analysis of the whole problem in the light of the existing conditions. The Finance Minister, United Press of India learns, has assured that he would bear in mind their demand for being considered as a link between rural and urban bank. He regretted that, in view of the fact that the Rural Banking Enquiry Committee's report was already with the Government, the question of so amending its terms of reference as to enable it to consider this demand could not be taken up.

As regards the Association's demand for exclusive right to protect dishonoured hundis and issue certificates for them, the Finance Minister is stated to have told them that it was an all-India question which would be considered by the Government after he had acquainted himself with the views of all the shroffs.

He, however, declined their invitation to inaugurate the proposed All-India Shroff Conference, as he thought that his association with it might give rise to misunderstanding in some quarters.

The deputation of the Bombay Shroff Association, which waited upon the Finance Minister this morning at the Reserve Bank of India, was led by its President, Shri Ratilal M. Gandhi.

MERCURY STOCKS DISAPPEAR

Prices Shoot Up

BOMBAY, Friday. The price of mercury—essential to druggists, industrialists and scientists—has shot up by seventy five per cent in Bombay, the main market. The entire existing stocks are stated to have disappeared.

A Bombay Government spokesman said that the stocks had been cornered by a "clique" in Bombay, which was the main import market for this liquid metal. But the State Government were unable to intervene because it was not a recognised market. Importers of mercury, on the other hand, blamed the Government of India for not having granted import licences for the next term. This, they said, had caused uneasiness in the market.

The existing stocks of mercury in the country is estimated at 11,05,000 pounds. The country's annual consumption is about 10,00,000 pounds.

TATAS TROUNCE BURMAH-SHELL

Shell Suffer A Nine-Nil Defeat In Callan Cup

BOMBAY, Friday. Burmah-Shell had a pocketful of surprises in store for their supporters this evening when they met Tata Sports in the quarter final of the Callan Memorial Cup Football Tournament at Parel and lost by nine goals to nothing. Sensational trouncing is putting this defeat of the Oilmen mildly, but quite indifferent was their mode of play to-day. They were completely off colour and never at any stage impressed. There was no reason otherwise for the Oilmen to play such a bad game as they have been seen to better advantage as one of Bombay's top-ringers in Soccer. Tatas were eager to do their utmost when opportunity provided and went all out for goals. They treated the first quarter of an hour with due respect but after five goals were scored in this session, they tried some fancy dribbling, but even this seemed to prevent Burmah-Shell from waking up from their first "seiza" of the season. Peter Ferrao scored five goals for the winners, while Anthony Braganza, who found his top form at Braganza, who found his top form at dribbling distributed the ball astutely and was working tirelessly for a big total. He, however, scored two goals for his side. Perumal and Bolan each scored one each.

MOHAMMEDAN'S HELD TO A DRAW

Calcutta Football League

CALCUTTA, June 30. Mohammedan Sporting were forced to a goalless draw by Aryans in their return league encounter, the first match having ended in their favour by one goal to nil. The game was fast enough to merit a decision, but poor positioning by both sets of forwards failed to bring about a decision. In the first half the exchanges were fairly even. After a short spell of mid-field play, Aryans broke through but A. Bose, inside-right shot over the Mohammedan goal. A little later Kanayya, Mohammedan right-out, missed a sitter from a centre by Salim. N. Sen Gupta, Aryans right-back intercepting in time.

On changing ends, Mohammedan forwards reshuffled their forward line. Shally, inside-right, moving to centre forward with Salim shifting to inside-right.

After the first few minutes, Aryans plunged into attack and continued pressing to the end. Bengal Nagpur Railway provided the first surprise in the return league by inflicting narrow defeat on George Telegraph.

The losers enjoyed a territorial advantage in the first half but could not score due to the feeble kicking of their forwards.

With the changeover, however, the Railwaymen dominated the exchanges. They scored the winning goal three minutes from the end, R. Maiti, outside right, scoring from a melee after a free kick.

England Humiliated In World Cup Soccer

U.S. SCORES SENSATIONAL WIN

BELO HORIZONTE, JUNE 29. (PTI-REUTERS). THE UNITED STATES BROUGHT OFF THE BIGGEST SENSATION YET OF THE WORLD SOCCER CUP SERIES, WHEN THEY BEAT THE ENGLAND SIDE BY A SOLITARY GOAL.

England put up possibly their worst display ever. Their forwards were particularly at fault, blazing the ball wide or over the bar and hesitating in front of the goal for the nippy American defenders to rob them before they could get in a shot.

The Americans hung stubbornly on to the lead they gained in the 36th minute of the game when their centre forward, the Argentine-born player, Gattenis, scored with a lovely shot from 20 yards into the corner of the net.

Stanley Mortensen skied the ball over the crossbar on several occasions and he and Bentley had the ball taken off their toes when in good positions in front of goal. Wilfred Mannion lost a great chance of scoring when he shot over the bar when unmarked in front of goal in the thirtieth minute.

The small ground and the close marking of the United States defenders seemed to handicap the Englishmen in their short passing game, and repeated changes in the front line during the second half brought no results.

They had some bad luck, particularly in the second half and the Americans also went very near to increasing their score on occasions. American breakaways in the second half gave Williams in the England goal some trying moments.

Spain jumped into the lead or Pool "B" of the series—the pool in which England figure—when they beat Chile here today by two goals to nil.

Both sides missed chances in front of the goal but Chile were the chief offenders, and first half goals by Basora and Barra were sufficient to give Spain victory.

Paraguay fought back well after being a goal down at halftime in their Pool "C" match against Sweden here tonight, and after equalising they came near to getting a winning goal on several occasions.

Sundqvist and Kalle Palmer scored for Sweden and Saguler and Lopez for Paraguay.

This result eliminates Italy, the holders, from final pool.

Travancore's Boat Race

KOTTAYAM, June 29 (PTI).

Nearly a lakh of people thronged the banks of the Pampa River at Champakulam, near here, today for Travancore's biggest carnival of boats.

The Rajpramukh of Cochin-Travancore, high government officials and visitors from all parts of the State witnessed this time-honoured boat festival—an annual monsoon event in "Kuttanad", the water-logged paddy-land of North Travancore, where every home stands on an island and where everyone goes about in tiny little, one-man row-boats.

Participating in the boat races were rivercraft of all types and sizes—ranging from the slim, 100-car "chundan" or snake boats, with lofty stern resplendent in gold and scarlet, and little glider-like "churians", to the tiny "water bicycles" paddled by littleurchins who sink and swim in sweet merriment and bounce back to the surface again, carrying the boat over their heads.

Gaily decorated pandals were erected along the banks of the river to accommodate guests and sight-seers. Thousands sat under the shade of the coconut trees on the river banks and thousands more watched the show from boats, large and small, moored alongside.

Massive arches spanned the river at many places and flags and bunting decorated houses, schools, temples and churches along the waterfront.

It was a gala day for the hundreds of villages that comprise Kuttanad. For the boat race comes shortly after the harvest, when the monsoon is at its height and the entire countryside looks like a mass of what, interspersed with green patches of coconut trees and smoking thatched roofs.

The Champakulam Boat Race is a contest between the villages for the challenge cup offered by the Rajpramukh for the major event of the day—the "Chundan" Boat Race. Prizes are awarded for racing events for other types of craft, as well.

Fifty pairs of race boats took part in today's events. Every event was hotly contested and the entire area echoed the rhythmic tune of the boat songs and the deafening cheers of the spectators.

The Rajpramukh, who watched the races with a keen interest, distributed the prizes to the winners.

The Cochin-Travancore Government announced a grant of Rs 1,000 towards the expenses for this carnival of boats.

MOMENTOUS MORAL SUPPORT TO U. N.

U. S. Papers Tail India's Star

INDIA'S decision to accept the United Nations resolution calling for military support to South Korea will be received throughout the democratic world with profound satisfaction, the New York Times declared today in a leading article.

The 'New York Herald Tribune' said this announcement from New Delhi was a significant step which goes beyond the moral support which India has given to the United Nations. It is the most important reinforcement of the United Nations' position. The United States, whether eastern or western, is the most important reinforcement of the United Nations' position. The United States, whether eastern or western, is the most important reinforcement of the United Nations' position.

There were reasons for concern before this decision was taken. India's decision to accept the United Nations resolution calling for military support to South Korea will be received throughout the democratic world with profound satisfaction, the New York Times declared today in a leading article.

Since the second world war the steady, expansive thrust of communism has been felt in Burma, Indo-China, Indonesia and the Philippines, all them important to the peace of Asia as a whole.

"There is no neutrality against us. Moreover it will always see strange to us westerners that a country of Gandhi should not recognize that communism is the philosophy as well as the instrument of imperialism."

"Yet it has always been clear that in a crisis India would be on our side because she is a democracy which follows the same free flowing stream as the western countries. Self-interest and morality joined in bringing about India's decision to accept the United Nations resolution."

Commenting on the momentous nature of choice posed for India by the resolution calling for sanctions against North Korea, the 'Herald Tribune' said, "close to the battle, hoping to pursue a middle course in the world pressed by internal problems, India in the nature of things, was forced to hard thinking by the events in Korea. That great Asiatic nation did not take refuge in abstaining from giving formal opinion on the question is tribute to the moral courage of its leaders; that she voted, in the end, in favour of the sanctions resolution is proof of their realism."

"India's very doubts and hesitations are a sign of her moral strength."

'Event of Special Importance'

THE Indian Government's acceptance of the Security Council resolution recommending U. N. members to go to the assistance of South Korea, was described by United Nations officials as well as individual delegations as an event of "special importance", cables D. P. Wagle, P.T.I. correspondent

Silver: The open market turnover dropped below 75,000 ounces as leading consumers prepared to close plants next week for the holidays. STATE AND INSURANCE

Nationalisation Harmful

MR. J. C. SETALVAD'S OPINION

BOMBAY, Friday.
Mr. J. C. Setalvad, Chairman of the Industrial and Prudential Assurance Co. Ltd., said here yesterday that Indian insurance will not stand to benefit by nationalisation. "Quality of service which is the most important of all will suffer and will result in falling away of the life business," he added.

Mr. Setalvad, who was addressing the shareholders of the Company at the thirty-sixth Ordinary General Meeting, said that the best interests of policyholders could not be served by transferring the industry to State ownership. Citing the example of the Postal Insurance, he declared that it has failed to be popular even amongst Government servants.

Commending the wise step taken by the Government in passing into law the Insurance (Amendment) Bill, Mr. Setalvad felt the provisions of the bill would effectively safeguard the interests of the common man, who was being exploited in the past by designing financiers. He foresaw efficient performance from this industry if a fair trial was given to the Amendment Act.

The Government of India, he added, had been wise in issuing an ordinance in January, 1950 for covering certain provisions of the Insurance (Amendment) Act, 1950 which related to the (1) Prohibition of acquisition of shares by individuals, (2) Restrictions on voting rights for individual holdings, (3) Restrictions on investments of life companies outside certain approved securities, and (4) Power of Government to appoint Administrator for management of companies which are mismanaged.

He said he was strongly of the opinion as far back as 1947, when the Cowasjee Committee submitted its report, that the Government should issue an ordinance so that financiers would not be able to take control of some of the companies, which they have now done.

MEDICAL EXAM.
In order to reduce the procurement cost of business Mr. Setalvad suggested that Life Insurance should start schemes of accepting lives without medical examination. In countries like the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom, he said, many companies were issuing short term policies without medical examination. Holding that in the business of Life Insurance, interest yield was a factor of vital importance, the Chairman asked the Government to further reduce the ceiling of income-tax payable by Life Insurance Companies to a reasonable figure and to introduce the equitable system of taxation.

Turn to the importance of service to the policyholder Mr. Setalvad wanted agents to be trained up in the elements of insurance. Service to the policyholders according to him was essential to tackle the problem of lapses and help growth of life business.

Earlier in his speech the Chairman revealed that during the year under report the Company had completed new business of Rs. 2,10,56,000 showing an increase of 20 per cent of the new life business of the year 1948. Premium income, Total income from interest, dividend and rents and the Life Insurance Fund—all showed increases over the previous year. The total assets of the Company increased from Rs. 4,30,44,000 to Rs. 4,81,95,000.

He said the efforts of the management and the vigilant watch over the same had greatly borne fruit. He added that comparatively the lapses of the Company were very low and that a systematic drive was being maintained towards preventing lapses.

DACOIT MENACE IN SAUGOR

South Provoked The War

SOVIET REPLY TO U. S. NOTE

LONDON, June 30.
RUSSIA told the United States on Thursday that responsibility for events in Korea rested with "South Korean authorities and those who stand behind their back".

The text of the note, as broadcast by Moscow Radio last night, said events had been "provoked by an attack of South Korean troops on the border area of North Korea".

The Soviet Note was in reply to the American note delivered in Moscow by Ambassador Kirk on Tuesday, asking Russia to "use its influence" with North Korean authorities to bring about a cease-fire and withdrawal of the invading forces.

The Soviet reply was handed to Admiral Kirk by Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. Moscow Radio in a broadcast to the provincial press quoted first the text of the American note and then the Soviet reply.

It declared: "The Soviet Government has withdrawn its troops from Korea earlier than this has been done by the Government of the United States, and thereby confirmed its traditional principle of non-interference in the internal affairs of other states."

"The Soviet Government is adhering to the principle of the non-admission of interference of foreign powers in the internal affairs of Korea. It is not true that the Soviet Government has declined to take part in the meetings of the Security Council. The Soviet Government, in spite of its desire, could not participate in these meetings of the Security Council since the permanent member of the Council, China, was not admitted to the Council, thus making it impossible for the Council to take decisions having legal power."

An official version of the shooting incident available here tonight stated that the shots were fired by the "head moharrir" (head clerk) of the police station owing to a "certain grudge" he bore the visiting officials.

The injured Circle Inspector and head constable were brought here this afternoon and admitted into hospital.

ber of the House Foreign Affairs Committee: "Wave not a rattlesnake by the tail and the sooner we pound its head in the better."

Senator Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska, Senate Republican leader: "I think the line he has drawn is a belated line and it is long past due. But now that it has been drawn, we should come to the defence of General MacArthur's recommendation."

Reporters asked whether a Chinese nationalist offer to send 30,000 troops into Korea had been accepted; to this Mr. Louis Johnson who spoke to pressmen said he was not yet ready to reveal what would be done about that.

WHAT IT MEANS
General Omar Bradley, Chairman of the United States Joint Chiefs of Staff said here today that the decision to use "certain supporting ground units" in Korea did not necessarily mean the full-scale use of ground troops, including, for instance, infantry and tanks.

General Bradley said: "I cannot reveal what troops, referred to by the President in his statement, will be used without revealing where they are."

He pointed out that ground forces were already in service in Korea in the form of communication and signal units.

Aid To South Korea

Ottawa, June 30 (PTI-Reuters): A Canadian Government source said today that the fluid Korean battle situation and development of United Nations plans for joint military action were likely to delay at least until this weekend any decision as to what military aid Canada may give.

Canada, he said, was trying to find out what the key country, the United States needs and wants.

Smriti Rekha and Balraj in New Theatres dynamic drama of
 I.N.A. 'Pahela Admi'

MEHRBANI TELLS STORY OF A VAIN WOMAN

FROM the trite saying "Beauty is only skin deep" and not the end-all of a woman's accomplishment, director-author K. Amarnath has woven an interesting story "Mehrbani". It is J. V. Productions' maiden venture released today at the Excelsior. Novelty and eight other theatres in Bombay.

True to the climax of the picture, beautiful Begum Para has been selected to head the leading role, portraying vanity in all its aspects, and ultimately winding up in ruin, as happens with every woman who relies more on beauty than brains. Co-starred is Ajit, who attained fame in the recent "Be Qasoor".

Producer Lulla seems to have been very lavish in providing a handsome budget for the music of this film. This has been ably handled by Hafeez Khan, the music-maker of "Zerant". The lighter moments of the film have been filled in by Gope and Yakub.

'KILARI' STILL DRAWS CROWD

Now in its 17th week, Bharat Films' "Kilari" is still pulling them in at the Minerva. "The is some sprightly comedy in the picture and the leads, which are very capably handled, are in the hands of Ashok Kumar, Suraiya and Kumar, the latter cast as a caricature of an army officer of the old school. The music of the film is by Hansraj Babel.

CITY CORPORATION WEEK BY WEEK

operations would involve a total expenditure of a crore of rupees. The chief executive had to admit that in respect of one process of road repair at least, namely the Recondo process the work had to be entrusted to that firm only which held a patent for the particular process and was prepared to disclose the same to the Municipality to enable it to do the job departmentally. Thus a practical monopoly held by a firm of road repairers forces the city taxpayers to pay the price they ask for doing the job in a particular fashion.

SCHOOLS AND HOSPITALS

The speech made by Mr. Dahyabhai Patel, leader of the Congress Party, in which he detailed the achievements of the Congress Municipal Party has led to severe criticism in some sections of the press. Mr. Patel tried to take the credit for his party of introducing compulsory primary education and improving health services in the city. It has led the press to point out that the state of affairs in the schools as well as hospitals run by the Municipality is far from satisfactory and there is hardly any thing for which the city can feel proud. In the matter of free milk to children to which also the Congress leader referred it has been pointed out that year after year even the sanctioned amount for the purpose is not spent and a very small fraction of school children have been receiving the benefit of this amenity. Mr. Patel's reference to corruption in Municipal services and the difficulties in fighting it created by the attitude of the Labour Unions has led to a demand for an inquiry about these remarks. It is also pointed out that the real sources of corruption are the giving of contracts and the use of material made departmentally and in these matters the Labour Unions are hardly involved. It is the higher authorities concerned with the acceptance of tenders and supervision of work done either by contractors or Municipal departments who are responsible for lapses.

B.E.S.T. FRAUD

In the meantime the huge fraud unearthed by the police in what is known as the racket for tampering the ticket issuing machines of the B.E.S.T. concern is the talk of the town. The investigations are still incomplete and the citizen should be prepared to hear more startling disclosures. It is not merely the financial loss suffered by the first municipalised concern that will astound the public when it comes to light. It will also throw light on the manner in which such things went on almost unnoticed for such a long time and brought the concern on the brink of financial disaster.

Sachar Reports To PM

NEW DELHI, June 30 (PTI): Mr. Bhimsen Sachar, former Premier of East Punjab and leader of the recent Indian goodwill mission to West Pakistan, met Prime Minister Nehru yesterday and apprised him of his impressions of the Pakistan tour.

Epic Of I. N. A.

New Theatres are going all out to ensure the success of their forthcoming "Pahela Admi", which is due for release at the Krishna, Excelsior and Chitra next week. The film is a dramatization of the story of the heroic days of the Burma campaign, when Subhas Chandra Bose inspired millions of his countrymen with the fires of intense patriotism. There are several members of the I.N.A. in the cast of the film, and the painstaking production and deep research is said to have ensured absolute fidelity to facts.

English Teaching Institutions

sible agencies would be perfectly consonant with a democratic outlook on educational problems. Our Government actuated by an ardent zeal for fostering the regional languages has adopted what one would call a totalitarian attitude in insisting that no experiments of this kind would be permitted, even though those responsible for such experiments are willing to forego the grants which they would otherwise receive.

UNFAIR TO INDIAN INSTITUTIONS

One of the results of the new policy if enforced would be that the wealthier and better class of people would send their children to American and European schools in preference to schools conducted by Indians, however efficient the latter may be. As for the European schools by far the greater number of children who attend such schools are not Europeans but Indians, who have to pay on an average double or three times the fees which the best of Indians school charge, not to mention the fact that the grants that they receive are on a considerably higher scale than the grants received by Indian institutions.

You refer in your statement to the fact that the use of English as the medium of instruction will not be confined to Christians, Anglo-Indians but that it will apply to all children who habitually speak English at home. A declaration by the parent or guardian in the case of any pupil form any community that English was the mother-tongue would be sufficient for gaining them admission to English-teaching schools. Will you permit me to point out that no circular issued by the Department makes a reference to this rule? It has only been verbally communicated in a few cases to heads of schools. Moreover, this is like giving a premium to English.

This country of ours which has just found its freedom from foreign domination finds itself to-day threatened by fissiparous tendencies of an alarming character. Provincial jealousies and hatreds have not been a new phenomenon in the history of our country. To these are now being added jealousies and divisions founded upon regional languages. Madras has already been cut up. In Bombay there are rumblings that political fragmentation may follow upon the recognition of regional universities and the logical implication of the introduction of linguistic divisions in our primary and secondary schools. If in a city like Bombay with its cosmopolitan population there are a few schools which bring together children speaking different languages. Statesmanship would have demanded that instead of scotching these institutions every effort would have been made to foster them and to give them opportunities to carry on their useful work. The teaching in many of these English-teaching schools may be far more efficient than teaching in other schools. Not only therefore should such institutions be tolerated as a matter of grace but given due appreciation for the work that they may be doing by proper recognition and by liberal grants.

May 1 in the end raise a fundamental issue? Is it possible for an educational system to be controlled by a national state, and yet the full social purpose of education not be restricted and constrained? If not subverted?

Next Change At Super

Music is very often responsible for the hit of a film, and crowds have been known to flock to theatres merely for the sake of the music. Anil Biswas, who is well known in the industry as a master of melody has been given the musical assignment in the forthcoming "La Jawab" which is scheduled as the next change at the Super Cinema.

Rehana, David, Kaveeta and Randhir are the main players, and the film also marks the debut of a newcomer, Sohni. Jaysinh Pictures are handling the Bombay release of the film.

Restrictions On Powerlooms

DEPUTATION WAITS ON MINISTER

POONA, June 30 (PTI): The powerloom industry is faced with difficult times following the decision of the Textile Commissioner to reserve the production of coloured saris for handlooms from July 1, according to Mr. Anwarali Hasanali, Secretary of the All-India Federation of Powerloom Associations.

Mr. Hasanali told the PTI today that some of the powerloom factory owners had already given notice of closure from tomorrow and the workers in some of the factories, for instance at Ichalkaranji, were threatening to take over the factories if they were closed.

Mr. Hasanali came to Poona today to wait in deputation on the Industries Minister, Mr. M. M. Naik-Nimbalkar, to acquaint him with the plight of the powerloom industry. Another deputation of the Ichalkaranji Powerloom Co-operative Association also met Mr. Naik-Nimbalkar today.

According to Mr. Hasanali, there are 22 powerloom units in India, out of which no less than 15,000 are working in Bombay State. The order of the Textile Commissioner will affect about 4,000 powerlooms, of which 1,000 are located at Ichalkaranji.

Mr. Hasanali said that he did not believe that the production of coloured saris by powerlooms could affect the handloom industry for the monthly requirements of coloured saris were 44 million yards of which only four million yards were produced by powerlooms.

Social Theme Against Caste Distinction

FAMOUS PICTURES' KAMAL KE PHOOL

FAMOUS PICTURES' "Kamal Ke Phool", a picture that deals with the omni-present caste distinction, comes to town this week and is opening this week. Suraiya takes a leading role in the film as a simple village girl who dares to fall in love with the son of a farmer who has decided views on inter-caste marriages. The villagers are seen up in arms against the pair of lovers and they have to go through a great deal of affliction before they triumph.

The lead opposite Suraiya is taken by Amarnath. Jeevan and Badri Prasad round off the cast. Leela Misra gives a brilliant portrayal of the farmer's wife. The film has been produced and directed by Kashyap and the musical credits belong to Shyam Sunder. The film is now running at the New Empire, Rivoli, Jai Hind and Imperial theatres.

LALJI HEMRAJ

We regret to announce that Mr. Lalji Hemraj, partner in the distribution firm of Billmorla and Lalji, passed away at his residence at the age of 57 on 26th June. Of a kind and affable nature, the deceased was a shrewd judge of the possibilities of a picture, and he has been connected with the release of some of the greatest hits of the industry. He was keenly interested in all questions concerning the welfare of the industry and was on the Executive Committee of the Distributors' Association.

'Ganesh Mahima' At Two Theatres Next Week

DUE to be released at the Lamington Kismet and Edward next week, "Ganesh Mahima" is the work of a team that has specialised in turning out mythological films. The story is a not too literal transcription from the classics, and deals with the great power that Ganesh is supposed to have held.

Though ostensibly about Ganesh, the film actually deals more with incidents in the life of Krishna, and the bulk of the footage is occupied by Krishna's feverish attempts to clear himself of charges that have been falsely laid at his door.

The script and dialogue was in S. N. Tripathi's hands, and he also wrote the musical score. Production by Homi Wadia is well up to the usual standard, and the majority of our thrill-loving populace should go for this one. The film is being released by Basant Film Distributors.

ROXY CINEMA RENOVATED

Messrs. Kapurchand & Co. of the Roxy cinema, are pleased to announce that the renovations recently undertaken have been completed at a cost of a couple of lakhs. The premises now present quite a new look and the interior decorations are of modern design. But they very sadly declare that due to short-supply of power by the BEST they have not been able to air-condition the house as previously contemplated. They regret to announce that not for another two years, will they expect to receive power, and during this period they request their patrons to content themselves with the comfort of the ordinary electric fan.

Britain Will Not Ask For Help In Malaya

MARATHI COMEDY AT SWASTIK

Damru Malwankar is a great favourite with Marathi speaking audiences, and the newest film in which he appears is currently running at the Swastik cinema. "Chali Til Shejari" is written by Dattu Bandekar, who has tried to depict life in the raw as it is lived in some of the slum areas of Bombay. The film is on the lighter side, and there is stress laid on the comic element, with petty politics and romantic interludes holding the stage rather than the seamy side that we associate with slum-land.

The leads, aside from Malwankar, are in the hands of Baburao Pendharkar, who plays a rustic come to the city to marry off his eligible daughters. The direction of D. K. Kale keeps the plot moving, and the performers turn in adequate portrayals.

LIQUIDATING ARREARS IN HIGH COURTS

Committee Recommendations

NEW DELHI, June 30 (UPI).—A concrete proposals have been made by the committee of judges and legal experts appointed in 1949 by the Government of India to suggest ways and means of liquidating arrears in high courts.

The Committee which consisted of Mr. S. R. Das, (Chairman) Mr. M. C. Setalvad, Mr. Alladi Krishnaswami Aiyar, and Mr. S. K. Das (members), has stressed the need for large scale reforms in various directions including the modification of some substantive law and simplification of the law of procedure. "Only such reforms" according to the Committee, "can strike at the root of the evil of heavy arrears and delayed justice."

The Committee has recognised that the right to approach the high court, provided by the Constitution, could not be curtailed. "Nor would it be right," adds the Committee, "to deprive a party of the right of coming to the high court by way of appeal or revision given by certain special legislation for safeguarding the rights of citizens against arbitrary exercise of powers conferred on the special court or authority set up by such legislation."

In the circumstances the Committee found that it could deal only with the rights of appeal and revision in the normal civil and criminal proceedings in the high courts.

COMMITTEE PROPOSALS

The proposals of the Committee fall into three main heads in respect of relieving the high courts of some work. The following five suggestions are in respect of extending the jurisdiction of the subordinate courts and for curtailing the right of appeal and revision to the high courts.

(1) In view of the fall in the value of money, appeals in respect of original suits, the valuation of which does not exceed Rs. 10,000, should lie to the district judge and not to the high court. The Bombay Government has already given effect to this step.

(2) No second appeal should lie to the high court in a suit for recovery of Rs. 2,000 or below or of immovable property valued at Rs. 1,000 or below except by the special leave of the high court.

(3) The revisional jurisdiction exercised by the sessions judges, under section 438 of the Criminal Procedure Code, may be enlarged to enable them to pass orders for acquittals instead of referring the case to high courts for such orders. The section may be suitably amended to relieve the high courts of criminal references under that section by the district judges.

(4) Revisional jurisdiction at present exercised by the high court under section 25 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, should be vested in the district judges, that section being suitably amended.

(5) The jurisdiction of a single judge in the high court in regard to civil matters should be raised to Rs. 5,000 where it is at present below Rs. 5,000.

The Committee points out that the question of curtailing the right of appeal and revision or of extending the jurisdiction of subordinate courts further would be "safe" if the calibre of the subordinate judiciary could be raised higher. It also emphasises that the Government should take proper care in the selection and appointment of the right type of men for such offices.

APPEALS

In regard to appeals the Committee has made three further recommendations:—
(1) All second appeals should be scrutinised by a single judge outside working hours and those fit to be admitted should be admitted under his orders. Those which appear to him as requiring further consideration or unfit to be admitted should be set down for hearing before him in court, under order 41, rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code.

(2) A full statement of the case on law and facts should be filed by the appellant along with the memorandum of appeal in all second appeals or soon after it, within a fixed time.

(3) In all civil appeals a concise statement of case with relevant law and authorities should be exchanged between the parties and filed in court, a short time before the hearing of the appeal.

Planning Body's Functions

SHANKARRAO DEO'S SUGGESTIONS

NEW DELHI, June 30 (UPI).—A suggestion that the Planning Commission would do well to concentrate on the supreme task of formulating a plan for the economic development of the country, was put forward by Shri Shankarrao Deo, General Secretary, AICC in an article captioned "Planning Commission And Its Work" in the current issue of the A.I.C.C. fortnightly "Economic Review".

The problem of the country, especially on the economic front, Shri Deo points out, boils down very largely to the question of honest and efficient administration. "It was never in the mind of the Congress Working Committee," Shri Deo asserts, "to make the Planning Commission a technician's paradise. Technical knowledge, as far as it goes, is essential to planning but it cannot go so far as to bring the plan and its execution into tune with the needs and aspirations of the people. The Commission should, therefore, be manned by people with administrative experience and bold imagination and above all sterling character and integrity beyond the slightest whisper."

Referring to the advisory capacity of the Planning Commission, Shri Deo feels that in a planned economy the formulation of the plan and its execution are but two aspects of the pursuit of the same objective and, therefore, should have a singleness of purpose. A plan is not a body of recommendations of a reporting committee which may be accepted or rejected in parts.

Dealing with the question of priorities in planning, Shri Deo observes that while determination of priorities will depend on the assessment of our resources, no plan which provides in any way for comforts and luxuries without assuring an even and regular supply of essentials of life and gainful employment to able-bodied citizens of the state will be able to carry the people.

Let the Planning Commission work on the formulation of such a plan and let the Congress organisation and other bodies committed to democratic planning with social objectives, educate the people to create the supporting atmosphere for the implementation of the plan," concludes Shri Deo.

Set Up Permanent Body To Ensure Peace In Bengal

B. P. N. T. U. C. SECRETARY'S PLEA

CALCUTTA, June 30 (PTI). Mr. Deven Sen, M.L.A. Secretary of the Bengal Provincial National Trade Union Congress, told the West Bengal Legislative Assembly today that the immediate cause of the communal flare-up in West Bengal in February and March last was the reports reaching through the press or through refugees of the communal disturbances and other oppression upon Hindus in Eastern Pakistan.

LEAGUE STILL ACTIVE

Mr. Sen said that he had reasons to believe that though the Muslim League organisation in West Bengal had been officially dissolved, some leaders of the League were still active in the State. There was an organised and concerted action to take away Muslim drivers of various vehicles and other semi-skilled Muslim workers away from Calcutta to Pakistan. He had also reports that there had been a large collection of arms by Muslims in the Park Circus area, and Muslims in Hooghly and Barrackpore had organised meetings in the first week of March and hoisted Pakistani flags.

Mr. Sen suggested the appointment of a permanent high-power commission with jurisdiction over both Bengals to watch and suggest ways for dealing with any symptom of communal flare-up in future.

The security of the minority in East Pakistan was the first condition of preventing any recurrence of communal disturbances in West Bengal, he said.

That could be achieved if the Pakistan Government declare their State as secular, throw open the membership of the party in power to the minorities, abolish separate electorates and introduce joint electorates with reservation of seats for the minorities. He also suggested abolition of communal organisations and disbandment of Ansars.

Earlier, the Commission recorded 'in camera' the evidence of Mr. Salla Kumar Mukherjee, Chairman of the Howrah Municipality.

ENOUGH FOOD BY 1951

Turned The Corner Says R. K. Patil

NEW DELHI, June 30 (PTI). Mr. R. K. Patil, member of the Planning Commission and former Commissioner for Food Production, told a press conference here today: "I believe we have turned the corner. Given an average season, it is quite on the cards that we will be self-sufficient in food by our target date end of 1951."

The Food and Agriculture Minister, Mr. K. M. Munshi, said that as against a target of 9.85 lakh tons of additional food production in 1949-50 over 1948-49, the total achievement in additional production by the end of June, 1950 was estimated at 9.35 lakh tons or 95 per cent of the target. It might even go up to 9.62 lakh tons or 98 per cent.

Mr. Munshi said that irrigation schemes were the main plank of the "Grow More Food" campaign, and were progressing had been very satisfactory. The additional production through irrigation schemes was estimated at 4.81 lakh tons, which was 163 per cent in excess of the 1948-49 achievement.

Mr. Munshi also reported "good progress" in increasing the number of wells and irrigation works and tanks, in land reclamation and in the distribution of seeds and manures and fertilisers.

TUBE WELLS

Mr. Patil announced that the Government of India had finalised a contract with a private firm for sinking 300 tube wells in Bihar, 490 tube wells in Uttar Pradesh and 250 tube wells in the Punjab by March 1952. This would be in addition to the wells constructed through the efforts of the States. The provision of pumps was included in the contract.

Mr. Patil said that no other scheme had evoked so much public co-operation as the programme of minor irrigation works, especially in Orissa and to some extent in Madras and Bombay. The local people whose lands benefitted by the scheme bore one-fourth to one-third of the capital expenditure and provided labour at less cost than usual.

The Centre had given a loan of Rs. 1 crore to Bombay to meet expenditure on minor irrigation works.

Mr. Munshi said that unless there was "some further unfortunate accident", Government should be able to stick to the revised import figure of two million tons for this year.

DIRECT PURCHASE OF FOODGRAINS

Inquiry Committee's Recommendations

NEW DELHI, June 30 (PTI). Mr. P. H. Rama Rao, Chairman of the Foodgrains Inquiry Committee submitted his report on the procurement and distribution of foodgrains in the country to the Food Minister, Mr. K. M. Munshi today.

The Committee, which was appointed by the Government of India has recommended retention and more efficient working of the existing controls. It has also pointed out the drawbacks in the present procurement campaigns in some of the states, particularly surplus states.

Other recommendations in the 274-page report include the regularising of fair price shops and efficiency in food administrations.

Rs. 59 Lakhs-Grant For U.P. To Grow More Food

NEW DELHI, June 30 (PTI). The Government of India have sanctioned a grant of Rs. 59 lakhs to the Uttar Pradesh Government to meet 50 per cent of the cost of some of their grow-more-food schemes.

The schemes include multiplication and distribution of improved cereal seeds, reclamation of alkaline and eroded lands, construction of the extension of Sarda Canal, Lalitpur reservoir and Nawa and Sapra dams.

Grants have also been given for minor irrigation works and construction of tube-wells in certain districts of the State.

RS. 40 CRORES A MONTH FOR IMPORTS

Foreign Exchange Budget

THE Government of India have drawn up the foreign exchange budget with a monetary ceiling ranging from Rs. 37 crores to Rs. 40 crores a month for imports in the next six months, it is reliably learnt.

The regulation of imports is governed by the principle, it is stated, of financing them from the earnings from the exports plus releases from the Sterling Balances. Discrimination against dollar goods will continue as long as the Commonwealth Ministers' decision on restriction of imports from the Dollar Area operates.

While India withdrew the dollar-value of 80 million pounds from the Central Dollar Pool last year, her contribution to it this year has been considerable. It is stated that the favourable trade balance which India has been able to maintain with the United States and other dollar areas upto May last may not be maintained in the coming months, though India has accepted 25 per cent cut in dollar imports.

Informed quarters say that higher prices of dollar goods coupled with stricter import control contrived to the fall in imports but this artificial favourable balance may not be continued because the exports are not likely to be maintained in the previous level since the export of groundnuts has been stopped. Further the need for capital goods and essential raw materials from the dollar areas will override other considerations.

SATISFACTORY
So far as India's trade with sterling areas is concerned, informed quarters feel that it is very satisfactory. The sterling balances which have been augmented by Rs. two crores during the year ending June 30, 1950, now stand at Rs. 830.12 crores. At the time of devaluation, the balances amounted to Rs. 789 crores and they improved steadily to Rs. 838.73 crores by the end of March 1950. In April India withdrew sterling valued at about Rs. ten crores, in May about Rs. 17 crores and in June about one and a half crores. The overall position is that as compared to the balances amounting to Rs. 823.11 crores in July 1949, they now stand at the figure of Rs. 830.12 crores.

Under the Indo-U.K. Sterling Balance Agreement, India is entitled to withdraw £70 million a year but she had no occasion to withdraw this year.

Reds' Attack On South Calculated KOREAN COMMISSION'S REPORT TO U. N.

A REPORT from the United Nations Commission on Korea says all the evidence continues to indicate that the Communists' invasion of the Republic of Korea is a "calculated, coordinated attack prepared and launched with secrecy".

For the past two years, according to the report, the North Korean Communist regime has, by "abusive propaganda", "threatening gestures" and "subversive activities" pursued tactics designed to "weaken and destroy the Government of the Republic of Korea".

The 2,000-word review, cabled to the U. N. headquarters, was dated June 26, shortly after the invasion began, and has just been made public.

The seven-member Commission, which left South Korea for Japan after the attack occurred, has decided to return to South Korea, according to the latest information.

In its report the Commission said the North Korean regime followed months of intensive propaganda against the Republic of Korea with a campaign for "peaceful unification" that turned out to be a screen for military action.

PROPAGANDA

"For the past two years", the report said, "the North Korean regime has, by violently abusive propaganda, by threatening gestures along the 38th parallel and by encouraging and supporting subversive activities in the territory of the Republic of Korea, pursued tactics designed to weaken and destroy the Government of the Republic of Korea established under the auspices of the United Nations Temporary Commission on Korea and recognized by the General Assembly. During the same period the United Nations Commission on Korea has been the target for repeated propaganda broadcasts which denied its legality, dubbed it futile, and subjected its individual members to abuse."

"This campaign has been relentlessly pursued during the past eight months while the economy of the young Republic remains shaky and the deliberations of the first National Assembly have been frequently stormy and critical of the administration. There have been distinct signs of improvement in recent months in both economic and political stability of the country."

"Although the North Korean regime by its radio, propaganda and support of subversive elements endeavored to prevent the holding of effective general elections on May 30, these elections, which were observed by the Commission, were on the whole successfully conducted in an atmosphere of law and order."

The report said that all parties participated in the latest election except the "underground Communists".

It added: "In the light of the evidently increasing strength of the Republic of Korea in recent months and the utterly unexpected invasion on June 25, the radio propaganda offensive calling for early unification (of North and South Korea) by peaceful means seems to have been intended solely for its screening effect."

'Police Measure Under U. N.'

WASHINGTON, June 30.—The action of the United States in support of the Republic of Korea against the invading forces of Communist North Korea is a police action under the auspices of the United Nations in favour of peace, President Truman told his weekly news conference yesterday.

The President emphasized that his decision to dispatch U.S. sea and air forces to help the defenders of the Korean Republic was for peace. When a reporter asked directly whether the U.S. action meant the nation was at war, Truman authorized a direct quote: "We are not at war."

Asked to expand on this comment, Truman recalled that the Republic of Korea was established with the help of the United Nations and recognized by the world organization. Authorizing another direct quote, he pointed out that this UN sponsored Republic was attacked by "a bunch of bandits" in North Korea and that the UN Security Council had requested member nations to help the Korean Republic throw back the invaders. "That is what is being done, he explained.

Answering numerous questions on the Korea situation, Truman said that his statement announcing U.S. steps to aid the Republic of Korea and maintain peace in the area was a peace move. He said if he had not thought it was such a move he would have taken other steps. The President noted that most members of the United Nations are in accord with the action taken.

INDIA'S DECISION

A reporter asked for comment on India's decision to support the Security Council resolution of Tuesday night asking U.N. members to help the Republic of Korea. Truman replied that he was happy to hear the news.

The Indian delegate in the Council did not cast a ballot when the vote on the resolution was taken because, he said, he had been unable to obtain instructions in time from his government. Since then, according to news reports, the Government of India has decided to accept the Council decision.

Asked about the action of the other American republics in expressing solidarity with the U.N. and U.S. actions, Truman said he was glad to hear of that, too.

Another reporter wanted to know if he was glad if the President had any doubts that the Communist attack in Korea could

In its report the Commission said the North Korean regime followed months of intensive propaganda against the Republic of Korea with a campaign for "peaceful unification" that turned out to be a screen for military action.

For the past two years, according to the report, the North Korean Communist regime has, by "abusive propaganda", "threatening gestures" and "subversive activities" pursued tactics designed to "weaken and destroy the Government of the Republic of Korea".

The 2,000-word review, cabled to the U. N. headquarters, was dated June 26, shortly after the invasion began, and has just been made public.

The seven-member Commission, which left South Korea for Japan after the attack occurred, has decided to return to South Korea, according to the latest information.

Mao Calls Truman 'Aggressor'

HONGKONG, June 30. (PTI-Reuters). MAO TSE TUNG, Chairman of the Chinese People's Government said today President Truman's interference in the internal affairs of Korea, the Philippines and Indo-China was completely unreasonable, according to a New China News Agency despatch from Peking.

He told the Communist Cabinet in Peking "Let all the people of China and of the world arise and make full preparations to defy the challenge of imperialism."

Imperialism wears a fierce appearance, but is actually weak because it has not the support of the people," Mao Tse Tung said. The sympathy of the people of China and of the world was with the victims of aggression and not with the "American imperialists". The Chinese people would not yield to temptation or to coercion of imperialism.

CUBA TO SUPPORT U. N. MOVE

HAVANA, June 30. (PTI-Reuters). Cuba instructed her delegate to the United Nations Security Council to support fully any measures adopted tending to stop aggression after a lengthy discussion of the Korean war by the Cabinet last night.

Cuba also declared her complete adherence to any United Nations move in defence of its principles, and the prevention of "further attacks against the peace".

Australian Fighters For Korea

CANBERRA, June 30. (PTI-Reuters). The Australian Government announced today that the Royal Australian Air Force fighter squadron based in Japan had been made available for the Korean campaign.

The squadron had been made available to the United Nations under American Command.

SORELY NEEDED

With reserves, the Australian 77th squadron has about 40 Mustangs which both General MacArthur and Lieutenant General George Stratemeyer, American air chief in Japan, have indicated were a sorely needed type of aircraft for the Korean campaign.

The Australian Mustangs are fitted with rockets besides machine-guns for strafing.

Australian Prime Minister, Mr. Robert Menzies, disclosed that the decision was made in response to a request by General MacArthur and followed daylong talks by telephone and radio with Ministers scattered over the Commonwealth and with the British and the United States Governments.

Maitre Mahmud Soliman Ghanma, Bey, acting Communications Minister, said the decision had been taken by the Ministry for War and Marine, but he declined to give reasons.

RUSSIA CAN'T AFFORD TO LOSE FACE IN ASIA

Bertrand Russell Says She Will Go To War

RUSSIA will go to war, and World War Three will last ten years, here with the "Sydney Sun".

"I don't believe Russia can afford to lose face in Asia", he declared.

Mr. Russell said he believed we were already in the initial stages of World War Three. His reason for this belief was "Soviet Russia considers she is better prepared for active war against America now than it will be at some unspecified later date when the Hydrogen Bomb has become a fact instead of a theory."

Mr. Russell, Fellow of the Royal Society, mathematician, philosopher, author and expounder of social theories, said recent reports of an atomic explosion in Russia might mean she had a fission bomb of some sort. Possibly the explosion had been accidental taking place in an experimental laboratory during an attempt to find the secret of the Atom Bomb.

"The fact remains that Russia has recently turned considerable attention towards Asia, and regardless of how far she has openly committed herself in the Korean invasion, the eyes of the whole of Asia will be on her attitude to the present crisis", he said.

If World War Three became an actuality, he believed it must happen in Europe and Asia "more or less simultaneously".

Discussing the possibility of a full-scale war between Russia and the Western Democracies on the Asiatic mainland, Mr. Russell said the question arose whether any coloured nation would participate on the side of the man.

"This is a difficult question to answer but I believe India for instance would try in the first place to remain neutral and if that proved impossible would come in on our side.

Religious grounds alone, India would strongly oppose Communism".

Seventy-eight year old Bertrand Russell is by rights Earl Russell but he refused to use the title.

Some of his social theories have brought strong criticism from more orthodox writers and philosophers.

GLEANINGS FROM URDU PRESS

In a Karachi Newsletter published in the "Afaq" it is stated that fresh flow of refugees in Karachi proper is in evidence because of the apathetic attitude of the Sindhis in the rural parts of the province. But with the approach of monsoon it is feared that the refugees now concentrating in Karachi would be ruined in the downpours of rain to which they are exposed.

The memory of the havoc which the torrential rains had caused to the refugees last year is still fresh.

DHEBAR BOWS TO PUBLIC OPINION

Decision On School Fees To Be Reconsidered

BUT STUDENTS CONTINUE AGITATION: 35 ARRESTS

RAJKOT, June 30. (PTI).—MR. U. N. Dhebar, Chief Minister of Saurashtra, announced in a statement today that in deference to public opinion Government had decided to reconsider the question of school fees.

Mr. Dhebar added that they had vested full authority in the Education Minister to settle the question at a very early date as he deemed fit, having regard to all the factors and in consultation with representatives of students, their guardians, public workers and citizens.

Mr. Dhebar said he hoped that the public mind would be set at ease by the assurance of Government and that the student community would return to their studies.

STONE-THROWING AND ARSON
Striking students continued to indulge in disorderly activities in Rajkot today. Policemen on duty were stoned, a bus was burnt and a police jeep was also damaged by violent crowds.

The students who were crowding at the Education Minister's residence pelted stones at the members of the town Congress Committee when the latter came to pacify them. Two Congress men were injured in this incident.

A section of the crowd also stoned the local textile mill which was immediately closed.

Three students were injured, two seriously, when police made a lathi charge on a crowd which pelted stones at the police pickets in the morning.

The general "hartal" was continued today for the second day and local cinema houses also joined in.

Reports of shops in some parts of the town being stoned at, are also coming in.

The police today arrested 35 persons for disorderly behaviour.

BASELESS RUMOURS
A Saurashtra Government press note issued tonight in connection with disturbances in the town says:

"Demonstrations of students in connection with the question of fees continued today in a more violent manner. There was a strike in the city yesterday.

The shops opened this morning, but a certain section of the students and certain other elements took out a procession with an inspired rumour that two boys had died of the injuries received in a lathi-charge, and succeeded in getting the shops closed. There was no lathi-charge in the morning hours of today and nobody died of any injuries whatsoever.

There was another rumour spread by a certain instigator that firing was resorted to by the police. All these rumours were absolutely baseless.

MUTT AND JEFF—A Case Of Too Many Objections

IN A CHINA SHOP

By Taurus

SHRI Ramakrishna Dalmia—Sethji to his numerous fans—has done it again. When he launched his latest God-child—the Nav-Bharat Times, he waxed positively poetic about his newest scheme for solving this country's ills. He wanted all the sons of this benighted land converted—through his papers, of course—into simple and God-fearing souls, completely sanctified except for halos.

I for one am all for shunning the devil and that sort of thing, but couldn't the Sethji please spare us sermons at breakfast time? Nothing is quite so destructive to a delicate digestion as breeding on the woes of humanity while sipping lukewarm cha at the local Irani.

It may seem strange that this upholder of the traditions of Ancient India should enter into an unholy alliance with an invention that typifies the very materialism that he so heartily condemns, and that he should use it to propagate his pet plans, but this modern Quixote is a firm believer in the end justifying the means.

Sethji scatters largesse with a bountiful hand, all and sundry coming in for their fair share of advice. Film producers are exhorted to eschew all immorality and inculcate the principles of high thinking and plain living. These words will, I fear, fall on pretty stony ground, if I know anything of the film world. As for creating a religion that hugs all creeds to its ample bosom—Shree Dalmia should have learnt a lesson from his fluster with the "One World" idea.

And the poor dear belles of Bharat! Sethji in his righteous wrath wants them to forget all those pernicious ideas absorbed during a half-century of militant feminism, and revert to the good old days, when males were a masterful breed and woman walked with down-cast eyes in the wake of her mate. Believe me, I have nothing but the profoundest admiration for anyone who has the nerve to propose this to our present-day Amazons.

But this is not all that the Sethji has in store for us. Not by a long chalk. He wants to turn us all into penance-performing rishis. I can't help wondering what exactly we will have to be penitent about if the Sethji's zeal bears fruit! Incidentally the Sage of Bori Bunder, a first-rate exponent of unconscious humour. A howler which I promptly assign pride of place is his pious wish that we Indians turn more sanctimonious. Considering that the majority of our woes are directly traceable to sanctimoniousness, I am inclined to believe that poor Sethji did not quite intend to perpetrate this gem. I think that a little elementary research into the contents of a dictionary might prove beneficial to Sethji's blurb-boys.
